

Single-head embroidery machine

Ideal for beginners! The free-arm embroidery machine from Tajima, completely equipped for cap and tubular goods. At only 82 kg, the NEO embroidery machine is a real lightweight, allowing quick and easy transport to events and road shows. The embroidery data are communicated to the machine through a 3.5" diskette drive or directly online from the PC. All machine functions are entered and monitored by the user in a control panel.

Information about the NEO embroidery machine TFMX \(2.28 MB\)

The universal single-head free-arm embroidery machine TFMX is equipped for all areas of application. The equipment includes the cap frame, tubular frame and border frame system. The individual applications can be changed within a few minutes. With a net weight of 120 kg, the embroidery machine can optionally be delivered with an underframe with wheels.

Information about the single-head free-arm embroidery machine TFMX \(1.65 MB\)